REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

A written statement must be provided on this form that fully explains the specific benefits to the University from this travel and how this travel supports University goals and mission. This form must be signed by the traveler and their supervisor as well as the Provost for faculty or the appropriate Vice Chancellor for staff. Travel to countries with heightened risk levels may be restricted (see Travel Advisory section below).

This form must be completed and attached to an associated Travel Authorization form prior to obtaining Provost/Vice Chancellor and Chancellor signatures on that Travel Authorization form. Once approved, submit the original Request for Approval of International Travel form and the original Travel Authorization form to Procurement Services for processing.
